

Albany Berkshire Ballet

Spring Performance 2006

8:00 p. m.

Saturday, April 8, 2006

The Clark Auditorium

New York State Museum

Albany, New York

Pre-performance Open House, showcasing the Albany Berkshire Ballet's Junior Company and the Academies of the School of the Albany Berkshire Ballet at 6:30 p. m.

Two new works by Pittsfield choreographer Mary Giannone Talmi, one with music by Berkshire Musician BOBBY SWEET, and one inspired by artist Gabrielle Senza's Red Collaborative Project, with music by the Pittsfield band CHANNEL

A revival of the ABB signature piece, OUR TOWN, choreographed by former Joffrey Dancer Philip Jerry, based on the Thornton Wilder play, with music by Aaron Copeland

Filling out the program will be an exciting classical pas de deux, and a neo-classical piece choreographed by Deirdre Duffin Swindlehurst

After performance reception sponsored by the Friends of the Albany Berkshire Ballet